TCU Summer String Workshop
2015

July 27 - 29
Registration info available at www.music.tcu.edu/smi.asp
TCU Summer String Workshop
Three exciting days of master classes and string chamber ensembles for advanced high school/college students of violin, viola, cello and bass. Topics addressed will include ensemble skills, cueing, sight-reading, and more. The workshop will conclude with a recital featuring all participants. Applicants must provide a letter of recommendation from their current teacher or orchestra director.

Overnight accommodations and recreational activities are available

Commuter Fee $150.00
Daily lunch included
Resident Fee $270.00
Includes tuition, dorm residency, and all meals
Auditor Fee $100.00/$220.00*
* Includes camp tuition, dorm residency, and all meals for the camp

Workshop Faculty
ELISABETH ADKINS is the newly appointed Professor of Violin at Texas Christian University. She comes to Fort Worth after 31 years as the Associate Concertmaster of the National Symphony Orchestra at the Kennedy Center in Washington D.C., where she performed with the finest conductors and soloists in the world. She is equally at home in solo, orchestral, and chamber music. Ms. Adkins appeared as concerto soloist with the National Symphony, the Dallas Symphony, the Baltimore Symphony and the Seattle Symphony. She is well known for her work with young musicians in master classes, clinics, and workshops across the country, frequently focusing on string players preparing to enter the orchestral profession.

Dr. Adkins will be joined by her colleagues on the string faculty at TCU for this inaugural workshop: Dr. Misha Galaganov, viola, Dr. Jesús Castro-Balbi, cello, and special guest, William Gowen, double bass.

Questions?
Contact Elisabeth Adkins at 817-257-6628 or e-mail at e.adkins@tcu.edu